

Parent Survey feedback – July 2015

Don't know

Yes

No

In Summary: 58 questionnaires were received.

All parents replied that they would recommend Manor School to other families

The vast/ overwhelming majority of parents replied that they are well informed about school and their child's health and therapeutic needs are met.

The very large majority say that standards of behaviour are high and the large majority say that unacceptable behaviour is appropriately managed. A small minority of parents said that they did not know whether standards of behaviour were high or whether unacceptable behaviour was appropriately dealt with. When this question was posed at Parents Forum the large majority of parents said that they were unable to comment with "yes" or "no", as they had experienced no incidents of unacceptable behaviour on which to base their answers to this question.
